Negro Murder,—Sheriff George O. Hanlon, of Chemung county, who brought here some prisoners sentenced to the Penitentiary, informs us that a murder was committed at Horseheads about eleven o'clock Thursday night by a colored man named Henry Thompson. It seems that Thompson had been jealous that his wife was too intimate with another colored man and determined on revenge. Arming himself with a gun fully loaded, he came to his house about eleven o'clock at night and was met at the door by Henry Burrows, a colored man, but not the one he had suspected. Without waiting to see who was his victim Thompson presented his gun, shooting Burrows through the head so that death resulted in a short time. Thompson has been arrested.—Rochester (N. Y.) Express. August 4.
